

Standing Together Through Recovery: A Message from the Comprehensive Service Center for People who are Deaf, Hard of Hearing, or Deaf-Blind*

In times of crisis, unity and support become the cornerstones of rebuilding and recovery. The recent Maui wildfire has left its mark on our community, affecting lives and homes. At the Comprehensive Service Center (CSC), we extend our heartfelt empathy to all those who have been impacted by this disaster. We stand with you, ready to offer our assistance to the Deaf, Hard of Hearing, and Deaf-Blind communities, as well as their families and support agencies.

A Helping Hand When You Need It Most

The CSC is proud to house a team of experts who are proficient in ASL and dedicated to serving those who have been affected by the Maui wildfires. Our services are free of charge, cater to your unique needs, and are confidential.

How We Can Make a Difference

Every individual's needs are different, and our services are tailored to address them effectively. From personalized intakes that identify your specific requirements to providing communication support as you navigate disaster assistance forms, our aim is to make the recovery process as smooth as possible. We're here to ensure that you have access to communication essentials, such as hearing aid and cochlear implant batteries, offering you a lifeline to connectivity.

Connection and Access to Information

Staying informed and connected is vital during recovery. We have established a communication access station on Maui with Wi-Fi hotspot, iPads, and webcam for those impacted to connect with loved ones and resources. We have also been re-creating news and information brief content, posted on social media outlets, accessible with ASL, captions, and voiceover as requested by community members.

Together Towards Recovery

The road to recovery may seem daunting, but you don't have to walk it alone. At the CSC, we're committed to working closely with you and community, state, and federal agencies to provide comprehensive support. As we join hands to rebuild what was lost and support one another, remember that we're here for you every step of the way.
