OSAS How-To Tutorial
Check Registration Status and Financial Aid

Checking your registration status

There are three items on the Registration Status page that may prevent you from registering for classes. You need to check what your status is and if any of the following will stop you from registering on the web:

- Holds
- Academic Standing
- Student Status

To get to the Check Registration Status page, you will need to do the following:

1. Login to MyUH (See Related Links section)

2. Click on Registration (in left column under "Student Services").
3. Click on “Check Your Registration Status”.

4. You may be prompted to select the term that you wish to make changes in.
   a. Click on the pull down box next to "Select a Term."
   b. You will see a number of terms (e.g. "Fall 2012"). Highlight one and select it.
   c. Click on "Submit".
5. Once you’ve selected the term, you will see the following screen and one of the following messages:
   - You have no Holds which prevent Registration.
   - You have Holds which prevent Registration.

6. To check what kind of holds or restrictions you have (and if they will prevent you from registering for classes), Click on the "Holds" link.

   Once you click on "Holds," you will see the following "View Any Holds on My Record" screen.

   If you do not have any holds, you will be told "No holds exist on your record." If you have holds, you will see details on the existing holds on your record.

   You must clear any holds or restrictions before you are eligible to register for classes.
