12:20 | V. Report from the Dean |
- A written report was shared as neither Dean Murata nor Associate Dean A. Jenkins were able to attend today as they are at the Hawaii Teacher Standards Board to discuss the COE’s post-baccalaureate in Elementary program.
- AAQEP representatives will be returning in November. Training will be held November 12. Let Associate Dean A. Jenkins know if you are interested. Also, AAQEP may be able to accommodate department trainings as well.
- All course proposals and modifications are due September 20 into the Kuali System. Submit to Associate Dean A. Jenkins by that date. The Associate Dean will forward material to COE Senate for review by curriculum committee (CCPP) and vote by COE senate.
- Volunteers are needed to serve on the graduate student travel award review committee. Let Associate Dean A. Jenkins know if you are interested and copy Lauren Saito.

<tr>
<td>Discussion of officer roles that changed over the summer. The chair elected in April had to resign due to changes in status. The elected vice chair had to step down as elected Manoa Faculty Senate Chair. The bylaws indicate that when there is a vacancy, specific departments need to forward a name of someone to serve. KRS was contacted and someone volunteered. Chair T. Nguyen has been working with that person. Chair T. Nguyen asked whether the Senate wanted to conduct one election at a time or vote on a slate of candidates. The Senate asked to vote on a slate of candidates.</td>

A. Officers

1. Chair - Paulette Yamada (KRS)
2. Vice Chair - Christine Irvine (LTEC)
3. Secretary-Treasurer - Daniel Hoffman (LTEC).
   Christine Irvine was elected last year. After she was nominated as vice chair, Chair T. Nguyen asked if anyone would like to serve as secretary-treasurer and indicated Senator C. Irvine was not prohibited from serving in both roles.

B. Standing Committee Chairs

1. Curriculum & Program Planning (CCPP) - Rhonda Black
   A reminder that there needs to be a minimum of 5 tenured faculty to serve on CCPP.

Chair T. Nguyen nominated P. Yamada from KRS as Chair. Senator E. Centeio seconded. Senator P. Yamada accepted the nomination.

Senator D. Lodes nominated Senator C. Irvine as vice chair. Senator D. Hoffman seconded. Senator C Irvine accepted the nomination.

D. Lodes nominated C. Irvine as secretary-treasurer. Senator J. Yuen seconded. Senator C. Irvine accepted the nomination.

<td>- Senator Donna Mercado Kim has requested travel documentation from the UH if university funds were used to travel to Mauna Kea. Also looking at possible ethical violations related to Mauna Kea. UHPA does not represent faculty on ethical issues. About 749 pages of travel documentation was supplied to Senator Mercado Kim. Two unions are looking through every page and at travel to Hilo in particular. Senator Mercado Kim is particularly interested if personal time was included as part of travel. Instructional faculty and some other categories must submit a memo about what is personal time during travel. Specialist faculty have to take vacation time. Students need instructor approval. Staff need supervisor’s permission.</td>
